“ I found Alphadog in the local shelter in Tulsa around 2009. I took him home had him shaved and flea dipped, it was the funniest thing you ever saw when the grooners bought him out so I could pick him up . They left all the hair from his neck to head alone, shaved the rest like a lamb . He looked like a scawny malnourished miniture lion with his blonde mane

Audacious Alpha Dog! I loved him! Such a sweet gentle nature! You were his world and he will forever be your soul dog! There is no love like that shared from a fur soul!

My heart hurts for your heart as I can feel it's heaviness

The pain never goes away!

It's been 3 years since I lost my big beautiful girl but she is etched upon my soul as Alpha Dog is upon yours❤️

Much love my friend 🍀❤️
