“ I remember when Callie scared that bear away from the house. She saved the casseroles that I made while Annie was recovering from surgery. They were stored in the freezer on the deck.

Oh yes, I remember that night. She chased that nuisance of a bear away.

“ I love you, Callie, and I miss you terribly. You grew up with me, and been with me everywhere that I have been in life. Nothing could have prepared me to lose you.

I can remember the day we brought you home, and holding you on the way when you were a little puppy. I remember your cone that was on top of your head, and how you hid between our legs because you were scared of the rain when you got out of the car.

I knew then that I loved you, and that you were a special dog, and I know now that you are special, and that there will be no animal that can ever replace you. You are the best dog ever and I love you, and nothing will ever feel the same with you gone now. Im going to miss you so much, Callie, I love you.

“ Callie, my sweet angel, oh how I miss not having you by my side. There will never be another you. Not ever. I hope that you know how much I love you. For 15 years we have been a part of each others lives and I do not know what to do now. I am lost without you. I would have given anything to have been able to be there with you when you passed but knowing that Eli was with you brings me some comfort. I hope that you know how much mama loves you. You have meant the world to me. I know that you were tired my sweet baby girl. I love you Callie. Rest in peace my sweet angel. Mama loves you always and forever
