“ Peaches was my baby girl. I received her as a birthday present for my 19th birthday. I was going cuckoo for Maltese in 2005. She was the chubby one of her siblings and my mom told me to pick her. First night with my little booger she slept with me crawled on my head and peed. She potty trained so easily. Peachy could go outside with me and not runaway. She will always be my sidekick. Peaches made it to 13. She had surgery Aug 6,2018 to remove tumors and August 9,2018 she crossed the rainbow bridge. Peaches was the best friend everyone always wants and I am lucky I got that. Till we meet again baby girl mommy loves you!
