“ Oh Hazel, where do I start Quite literally the most sassy cat to ever exist, but also the sweetest. He was there to make biscuits on me whenever I needed it, and was the most huggable cat. From eating fresh fruits and vegetables to keeping many dogs in line, Hazel truly could do it all. Most mornings his persistent meows for his first serving of food would wake me up, and I would begrudgingly give in to the little one. Oh how I wish he could wake me up once more.
