“ Nothing will be the same without you my sweet sassy boy. For 16 years you stayed by my side every time I was sick, you were my tear catcher though every heart break. From the age of 6 I grew with you. God knew I needed a best friend that loved sunshine and grass. I know you're in a sunny field somewhere eating the best grass. I hope you find someone there that crochets you love to lay on a good project and chew on the yarn. It's hard here without you. I love you forever my guardian angel ❤️🌈
