“Maxie boy was the sweetest dog in the world. He loved to lay around with his mama or human sister and snuggle. He could lay in bed all day. He was there for us in good times and bad. Max was our first dog, he went through our crazy twenties and was there when we brought home our first human baby. He was the best dog and his mama's best friend for almost 7 years. He will be greatly missed and always remembered. Rest easy stinky boy.”
