“ My precious Mocha kitty it has been a whole year since writing on here. Just so you know I have what remains of you physically on a shelf in my living room and i do gaze upon you frequently my dear old friend. I still miss you and cherish the friendship and comfort you gave me for all of those years. We sure went through a lot. I will never feel right for letting you go. It was difficult knowing if you were suffering or not. So much trouble eating there towards the end and even though you always gazed at me with those big beautiful eyes. I miss your soft fur. There will never be another you in my life. Irreplaceable friend. I will always love and cherish you even in just memory my Mocha.

Just missing you as always.

“ Hi dear departed friend. I have been thinking of you so much lately. Still missing your companionship. I miss your big eyes and soft fur. You were my rock and I spend so much time hoping that it wasn't too much of a burden for you to carry. You stayed with me for so many years. I will always regret my decision that day and it will never feel as if it was the right one. I love you and miss you always.

“ Dearest friend I have been thinking of you so much still. I still mourn you and miss you greatly. I love you so much.

Cheyenna McCoy - November 19, 2018 at 08:21 PM

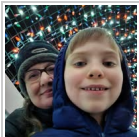

“ My dearest Mocha, if you were still here with me this is the time of year I would have had to make you start sleeping indoors again as it is too cold outside at night now. This was that transitional period when you would sit over at the back door staring at me to let you back out to your patio. I miss your super soft and beautiful fur so much. I miss you so much.

Cheyenna McCoy - October 13, 2018 at 07:29 PM

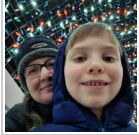

“ My dear old friend...I continue to think of you and miss you just as much as ever. You are and will always be forever in my heart. I wish so much that you were still here with me.

Cheyenna McCoy - July 26, 2018 at 11:21 AM

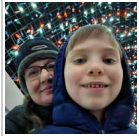

“ It's already spring like weather Mocha...I know you would be loving being outside soaking up the sun with such nice warm weather. Running through the back yard and scratching on your tree and then running up to the back door peering in with those beautiful big eyes. I miss it so much and I wish so badly you were here with me. Life will never be the same without you my dear old friend. ;(

“ It has been just over a month since I lost you my sweet friend. I haven't went a day without crying over you yet. I miss you so much. We had so many years together and really had grown into quite a team. You were always there for me and I loved you so much for being my friend. My world is just not the same without you in it. Everywhere I look I have so many memories of you. Still just so heartbroken.

“ I don't even know what to say about my beloved companion, family, and friend of 22.5 years...I miss her so much. A friend who was by my side through thick and thin and never judged or criticized, just loved. Mocha was a truly unique individual who stood up to anyone and anything who tried to cross her! She was so beautiful and I am so heartbroken about how her amazing long life ended. She was my forever cat and I loved her so much.
