“ Sweet Paisley girl

“ Paisley was a vibrant, happy girl who always kept us entertained. She loved the people she knew and was protective towards those she didn't know, but I have never witnessed a more loyal dog than Pais was to her dad, Hunter. There was nowhere Hunter would go that Pais wouldn't follow, and no human that meant more to her than he did. However, Paisley could never pass up a paw-shake, nor would she ever pass up a treat. The sound of a treat bag would light up her eyes and she would come running. As long as we offered treats, she'd hang around and let us give her belly rubs and snoot scratches, but once we ran out, it was back to her dad she'd go with her tail wagging.

Paisley will forever be missed. She left us with a legacy of love and we are grateful for every moment with this precious girl.
