ME

“ The best companion anyone could ask for.. I'm going to miss coming home to you waiting for me at the door, waiting for me to help you up on the bed, watching you do your little happy dance before getting food. There's so many more things I could say about you but I'm happy that you are in a better place. Run free "My Little Guy"! I will love and cherish you for the rest of my life.

"Somethings that you love so much can't live forever"
