“ The best hiking buddy, gardening buddy, comforter, and friend. If I could've saved you with my love you'd never have to leave. I wish you could be here for Tirian. ”

“ Ryley the Valiant. The one who always stood by even when others didn't. The one who came running to my aid whether the enemy was a fly or heartbreak. The closest friend in the darkest of places. ”

Thank you for escorting me through childhood, into adulthood, and to the threshold of parenthood.

It wasn't fair, the way things happened. No matter how much time we had, it never would have been enough.

I love you forever and no matter what, pup. See you soon. 💕💕
