“ She was our Arizona rescue. Came to our door not once but twice, in the rain. Found out a neighbor left her behind. Sick and literally dying- our first bill for the vet was over 700 and without thought her papa paid it gladly. We had her the rest of her life- almost 17 years. The Goddess we called her- she lived like one but given her start in life- she deserved it. I miss her every day but try not to think of the loss, but rather-her living and all the travel and things we did with her- she lived large and in charge and we wouldnt change a thing.

We miss you little one
