“ Really missing you so much right now. I keep hearing you meow and I turn to look and you're not there. My heart is aching for you so much Sniffles.

“ Sniffles was one of the best fur babies anyone could ever hope to have. She had her own unique personality that made it so easy for everyone to fall in love with her. She lived a long and happy life and will be deeply missed. I know she is right beside Spaz and Curious and sitting on our dad's lap in heaven. We love you so much and will never forget the impact you made in our lives and heart. You will forever be in our hearts baby girl
