“ 14 years creates a lot of memories. He saved my life, he chewed my knitting needles, he carefully wrestled with the smaller dogs. He got beat up by a cat but terrorized anyone he didn't think was good to have around. He dutifully ate the grandson's peas under the table. He was a lifetime of all that.

Your sweet baby gave you a lifetime of love and you returned the same to him. You can't ask for more than that. RIP Timbit... have fun frolicking over the rainbow bridge. <3
