“ My daughter and I went to a Girl Scout Leader/Daughter Retreat 15 years ago. We played The Price is Right! while there. We had to guess the price of the vaccinations, food & water bowls, leash, collar, & toys and WE WON! We were so excited. We told everyone she was a Girl Scout, too.

When we picked her up, they said her name was Zipper. We changed it to Zippie. Since my mom gave her dog my middle name, we gave Zippie hers. So, her name was Zippie Ann Kotoff.

She lived up to her name. She would dart out the front door and the only way to catch her was to jump in the car, drive a block or two up the street and tell her we were going bye, bye.

Wasn't sure if she was full beagle. The person that gave her to us said both of her parents were beagles, but the vet thought she was part mastiff. I don't think so.

She had the softest fur, she rarely barked and didn't dig holes. She was not a guard dog. If anyone came over, she would just sniff them to death. She did howl occasionally when she was home alone. Her favorite food was rotisserie chicken and hard boiled eggs.

We loved her and will miss her.
