

Zoe Steiert

December 13, 2019

Zoe had some rough beginnings for the first 8 years of her life. However, she prevailed over all of it. When she came to live with us 7 years ago in 2012 she became the princess of our family. She was loved beyond measure and spoiled with as much attention as she could manage. She was the constant companion of Joe Steiert before he passed in October of 2018 and after still was the focal point of our family. She was not just a good dog, but the baby of the household. We got to borrow her from Joe for one year and 3 months and now she will be his constant companion again as she journeys across the Rainbow Bridge.
